A day at the airport

Welcome at Bloomberg local airport. Today you are going to see all types of airplanes and helicopters that we have got at our airport. You will have the chance to see radiologists, pilots and mechanics at work. I think that you will learn many interesting things about the history of our airport and also about all the planes, machines and people here and I believe that you will enjoy your visit a lot. The tour is going to take about one hour and half. Before we start, please, put on helmets to be safe during the tour.

The first plane that you can see on the left is a passenger plane for fifty-five people. Now, we are going to climb the stairs onto the plane, you can sit at a seat and fasten the seatbelt. Don't be afraid. We are not going to fly away.
